Jamey Blalock Promoted To Sergeant

Gastonia Police Detective Jamey Blalock was promoted to sergeant, effective upon the retirement of Sgt. Jimmy West on Nov. 1.

Sgt. Blalock, 41, was hired by the Gastonia Police Department on July 21, 1997, and has served with Patrol, the Street Crimes Unit and the Vice and Narcotics Bureau. He's been a SWAT Team member since February 1999.

Sgt. Blalock holds a bachelor of science degree from Western Carolina University, as well as the Advanced Law Enforcement from the State of North Carolina. Awards he has earned include GPD's Medal of Valor, the Exceptional Duty award and several Chief's Achievement awards.

"Jamey Blalock is a dedicated officer, and is very deserving of this promotion," said Chief Tim Adams.
