Underwater Search and Recovery Operation

The Gastonia Police Department will be conducting a multijurisdictional, multi-agency underwater search and recovery operation in Belmont Oct. 25-26. The operation, which will take place at the public boat launch at Dale's Landing, will be both an actual search effort for crime scene evidence as well as a training exercise.

Underwater Search and Recovery/Dive Teams from the Gastonia Police Department, Gaston Emergency Medical Service (GEMS), Cabarrus County Sheriff's Office, and the Burke County Sheriff's Office will be conducting the underwater operations. Personnel and/or equipment from the Gaston County Police Department, Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department, the North Carolina Center for Applied Textile Technology, and the Mount Holly Fire and Rescue are supporting the effort.
