

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, Public power is a crucial component in cities and towns across North Carolina, contributing to the overall health of communities by providing reliable electricity, excellent local service, and prompt restoration; and
- WHEREAS, North Carolina's more than 70 public power cities and towns are among more than 2,000 across the country and most North Carolina public power cities and towns have been electric providers for more than 100 years; and
- WHEREAS, The City of Gastonia maintains 473 miles of distribution lines, 9,652 street lights, 10 substations, and 28,500 customer accounts; and
- WHEREAS, North Carolina's public power communities serve over 1.2 million North Carolinians, providing reliable electricity and neighborly service; and
- WHEREAS, North Carolina's public power communities are "Standing Together. Standing Strong," with a dedication to restoring electricity after storms and celebrating superior reliability when compared to other electric utilities; and
- WHEREAS, North Carolina's public power utilities are valuable community assets that contribute to the well-being of the community and provide economic development opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Mayor and Council of the City of Gastonia, North Carolina, do hereby proclaim the week of October 1-7, 2017, as

and the City of Gastonia joins our other North Carolina Public Power communities, as well as, all public power systems in the United States in this celebration of public power.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Gastonia to be affixed this 19th day of September in the year of our Lord two thousand and seventeen.

John D. Bridgeman, Mayor
